

Suspension of industrial action by ASLEF the Drivers' union 24, 25 and 27 January

ASLEF the Drivers' union have suspended all industrial action including their strikes due to take place on 24, 25 and 27 January.

Unfortunately, whilst the Drivers' strike has been called off the RMT Conductors' union strike will take place on Monday 23 January and all Southern and Gatwick Express services are likely to be disrupted.

For the latest information and limited alternative options for essential travel please check southernrailway.com/strike

We are sincerely sorry for the continued disruption to your journeys.

SOUTHERN